

Listing your auto glass company in the SGC Network national shop database.

You should submit this form if your shop meets the following criteria:

- Your company is a new auto glass service provider.
- Your company has not billed SGC before.

You should not use this form if -

- You have recently sold/purchased a business* and now wish to be listed with SGC.
- You are adding an additional location* to a company currently registered with SGC.

 To facilitate these transactions, please use the appropriate forms, listed in the HELP LIBRARY.*

SGC Network is a third-party-administrator for multiple insurance clients. SGC provides billing and claim services, accommodating a one-stop solution which empowers insureds to set up auto glass claims via the specific instructions of their insurance provider.

Attached is the form which allows your auto glass service facility to be listed in the SGC Network database. Please note that this is not a contract, but instead a notification document which collects the details required to properly register your shop.

Benefits of listing your shop with the SGC Network national shop database:

- Your auto glass company will be listed for auto glass customer preference selection.
- A profile will be created for your company on the SGCNetwork.com web site. This site allows you to submit invoices online, track invoice processing and payments, update your shop information and also issue pricing approval inquiries directly to the SGC Network Team. These features are provided by SGC Network at no additional cost to you.
- Your staff will gain access to helpful guides, training presentations and forms through the website's HELP LIBRARY.
- You may opt to receive your work orders via fax or email, and be able to re-issue previously released work orders to your shop at will.
- You may wish to have a parent level account number assigned, should you wish to bill SGC via your selected EDI provider.

Thank you!

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I Instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Social security number

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

- Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:
- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
 - A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
 - An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
 - A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
